Malawi Information

In Malawi 6.5 million of our brothers and sister are suffering famine due to extremes of drought and flood. Thank you to everyone who purchased a £5 gift card and helped to raise £250 from Ballantrae and £175 from St Colmon (£425) to provide seeds and fertiliser to restore the ground and crops.

Ballantrae Malawi Group delivered Christmas cards in the local area and raised £100 for our linked church in Lwambaza so thanks to all who participated.

FROM THE INTERIM MODERATOR

Since I last wrote to you Christmas has come and gone. Hopefully you all enjoyed the festivities and that you devoted some of your time to considering the real meaning of Christmas. And that is that Jesus came into our world on that special of days to teach us, to inspire us, to help us and to ultimately give up his life for us.

The next Christian festival that we will be celebrating will be Easter. There are some folk who make an extra special effort to attend church at Christmas and Easter, but do not make much effort to attend between these two dates. There are many other Sundays in-between though and we should use these Sunday to reflect on the many incidents in Jesus' life.

Jesus lived a very busy life. He healed a number of people and by doing that he really changed their lives. He spoke to hundreds of people at a time – sometimes using parables – sometimes using more direct teaching methods. He also interacted with a number of people on a one-to-one level, as a result of which their lives always improved for the better.

Just hearing the Christian message at Christmas and Easter is Hearing only a part of Jesus' life story. And that is why it is important that Christians attend church as regularly as possible and not only on special occasions.

Flowers at St Colmon Church

Very many thanks to all who have contributed to our Kirk flowers through the seasons. The Flower Fund being at a rather low ebb at this time of year, any help would be gratefully appreciated – perhaps, for instance, by a simple bunch of flowers placed in the Kirk. The flower rota in the vestibule still has some spaces.

Ballantrae and St. Colmon churches have signed up to the national Year of Young People.

Churches, including those with few or no children, are invited to explore what they can do, both in church services and beyond, and explore some new ways of engaging with children and young people. We plan to hold a service to introduce the theme and watch out for events through the year! Please get in touch if you have any ideas.

Your Easter Egg gift can help to spread the Good News if you give a real egg complete with the Easter story. Please consider ordering "Real Easter Eggs" through Life & Work or Embrace the Middle East magazines.

Details are available in the Kirk Hall.

Farming Ministry

“Carols in the Mart” was a very successful evening with standing room only. It gave us all an opportunity to meet Rev Chris Blackshaw who has been appointed as Ayr Presbytery’s Pioneer Minister to the Farming Community. Chris can be seen regularly at Ayr cattle market and has also visited some members in our parishes. If you wish to speak to Chris, please phone 07980 975062 or contact your elder.

In the coming weeks there will be some new preachers at our morning services. From what I have heard the two congregations appreciate this opportunity to hear a variety of different people proclaim the Christian message. The congregations also appreciate the work of the various Worship Teams and all they do to present the gospel in interesting ways. A vacancy offers congregations a unique chance to hear a number of different preachers while still attending their local church.

There are some issues which need to be resolved before the vacancy is advertised. However, I am hopeful that these can be completed soon. A vacancy puts a great deal of pressure on office-bearers and I am very grateful for everyone who has supported me and who has worked tremendously hard to ensure that for the two congregations it is very much ‘business as usual.’

All being well I will be with you all on the second Sunday in February. Until then if there is anything that I can do to help then please do not hesitate to get it touch with me. I may be busy just now – but I am never too busy if anyone needs me.

All the best, Rev. Ian McLachlan, Interim Moderator.

Ballantrae Flower List

Flower List for 2018 is available to donate flowers to decorate the church. These are then passed onto those in the community who are in our thoughts.

Points for Prayer

“Come to me all you who are weary and burdened and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart and you will find rest for your souls.” Matt.11.28

Give thanks that the God whom we worship is always available to hear our prayers and will always answer us; He is the Father who loves his children and desires the best for us.

Give thanks for the promise of Spring and the possibilities it brings of new life and renewal that we see in nature around us.

Pray that we as congregations of believers may experience renewal in our own lives and in the life of the church here.

Pray that we may go on believing that God has a plan for our parishes and that he will fulfil it.

Pray for those who have found the winter hard and have suffered illness or deprivation.

Pray that each of us will be willing to reach out in friendship to those around us, to make life better for some or to bring encouragement to those who may be discouraged.

Pray especially for those who have the task of keeping the work of the church going in this time of vacancy: For the Interim moderator, for the session Clerks, for the Worship Team and for the Nominating committee as they search for a new minister.

Pray for peace and harmony as we work together and pray that every member will take on responsibility cheerfully as needed.

Pray always for the persecuted Church worldwide. Christians are suffering imprisonment, torture, abuse because of their commitment to Christ. They need to know that they matter to us and that we care.

Pat Guthrie, Prayer Promoter.

PRAYER AND PRAISE

Prayer is essential for our Churches and the world around us. All are welcome to join us in St Colmon Kirk Hall on the 4th Saturday of each month at 10am when we sing a couple of songs and pray. There is no obligation to pray out loud, just come and join in by quiet contemplation.

A Thought

A businessman, well known for his ruthlessness, once announced to writer Mark Twain, "Before I die I mean to make a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. I will climb Mount Sinai and read the Ten Commandments aloud at the top."

"I have a better idea," replied Twain. "You could stay in Boston and follow them."
